

EDULANDS LANDSCAPE EDUCATION FOR TRANSITION

FINAL CONFERENCE
MILAN 26/27 FEBRUARY 2024

The two-years ERASMUS + project EDULANDS (2021-23), was aimed to develop new methodologies and tools to promote a shift in the educational framework for social and environmental transition. It set up an international and interdisciplinary codesigning process to empower youths, foster their sense of belonging to the places and promote active responsible citizenship, even in vulnerable contexts.

This conference is the final step of the research. It will present and discuss the project experience and results, including the analog and digital didactical tools set up during the process. The seminar is open to teachers, scholars, artists and educators, active in formal and informal contexts and will offer workshops for educational paths codesign.

Similar experiences and good practices are welcomed to be shared and discussed to enlarge the collaboration network. The meeting will have a practice-oriented approach, favoring presentations of concrete experiences and tools. Therefore, non-strictly academic presentations and different formats and/or proposals for interactive activities are also appreciated.
